FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

7. Since November 12, 2019, Defendant and Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 83 have been signatory to a Building Agreement ("CBA") covering building construction work in eleven counties in southern Ohio.

8. Defendant was at all times relevant bound to the Agreements and Declarations of Trust establishing the Ohio Laborers Benefits and the LIUNA Tri-Funds by virtue of executing the CBA and performing work thereunder.

9. All of those referenced documents obligated Defendant to file monthly contribution reports, permit audits of its financial records, and make hourly contributions to the Ohio Laborers Benefits on behalf of all persons as defined in the aforesaid CBA.

10. The CBA, the Agreements and Declarations of Trust, and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Boards of Trustees for the Ohio Laborers Benefits authorize Plaintiffs to conduct an audit of financial records, collect delinquent contributions, and assess and collect liquidated damages and interest where an employer like Defendant fails to timely remit required contributions.

11. In May 2020, Plaintiffs conducted an audit of Defendant, finding that between the time period of November 2019 through March 2020, Defendant failed to remit contributions in the amount of $16,408.15, resulting in the additional assessment of liquidated damages in the amount of $1,640.81 and interest in the amount of $1,053.33 through August 1, 2020—plus 1% monthly interest thereafter, attorneys' fees, and court costs.

12. Plaintiffs have demanded payment from Defendant several times in advance of filing suit.

13. To date, Defendant has not remitted the required payments to Plaintiffs.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Breach of Collective Bargaining Agreement)

14. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

15. Pursuant to the terms of the CBA, Defendant was required to remit contributions to Plaintiffs.

16. As such, Plaintiffs are intended third-party beneficiaries entitled to enforce the terms of the CBA.

17. Defendant's failure to remit timely payment of the delinquent contributions, the liquidated damages, and interest assessed by Plaintiffs constitute a breach of the CBA and a violation of 29 U.S.C. § 185.

18. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's breach of the CBA, Plaintiffs have suffered damages.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(ERISA)

19. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

20. Defendant's failure to make said payments under the CBA constitutes a violation of 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

21. Defendant's violation of 29 U.S.C. § 1145 has damaged Plaintiffs.

22. Plaintiffs therefore seek and are entitled to delinquent contributions, liquidated damages, and interest due and owing on delinquent contributions, plus the costs involved in bringing this action, including attorneys' fees, court costs, and expenses pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(g).

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Injunctive Relief)

23. The allegations above are incorporated specifically by reference as if fully re-alleged herein.

24. In failing to pay contributions due and owing under the CBA, Defendant breached the terms of the governing documents of the Ohio Laborers Benefits and violated 29 U.S.C. § 1145.

25. Plaintiffs therefore seek, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3)(A) and (B) an Order from this Court (1) ordering Defendant to make timely contributions, (2) enjoining Defendant from further breaching the terms of the governing documents of the Ohio Laborers Benefits and violating ERISA, (3) ordering Defendant to submit monthly contribution reports to Plaintiffs, and (4) enforcing the governing documents of the Ohio Laborers Benefits and ERISA.
